PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

NantHealth, Inc. (the "Company") has determined that it is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022 (the "Form 10-K") by March 31, 2023, the prescribed filing due date for such filing for the reasons set forth below. As disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Act (the "SEC") on March 6, 2023, the Company consummated the closing of a senior secured term loan in the aggregate principal amount of $22.5 million, maturing on December 15, 2023. As a result of the Company's efforts towards reaching an agreement with the lenders of the senior secured term loan, closing on the financing transaction to address the Company's liquidity needs, the Company requires additional time to finalize the financial statements and related information included in the Form 10-K. In addition, the ongoing post-closing obligations in connection with the senior secured term loan have involved significant resources and have been a priority for management and diverted significant management time and internal resources from the Company's processes for reviewing and completing its financial statements and related disclosures in a manner that would permit a timely filing of the Form 10-K.

The Company is working diligently to complete its financial statements and related disclosures and anticipates filing the Form 10-K as soon as practicable and no later than fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date as provided by Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, but can provide no assurance that it will be able to file by such time.

Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements contained in this Form 12b-25 other than statements of historical fact, including, without limitation, statements regarding the anticipated time frame within which the Company expects to file its Form 10-K, are forward-looking statements. The words "anticipate," "assume," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan,"

"potential," "predict," "project," "future," "will," "seek" and similar terms or phrases are intended to identify forward-looking statements, though not all forward-looking statements use these words or expressions.

These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on information available as of the date of this Form 12b-25, and are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the timing and ultimate conclusions of the Company's independent auditors regarding the audit of the Company's financial statements. These and other potential risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from the results predicted are more fully detailed in the Company's filings and reports with the SEC, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each quarterly period during 2022, as well as other filings and reports that are filed by the Company from time to time with the SEC. You should consider these factors in evaluating the forward-looking statements included in this Form 12b-25 and not place undue reliance on such statements. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
